Don’t Say the Word

Dieses Spiel enthält 45 Karten mit einfachen Begriffen. Es eignet sich für Schüler ab Ende der 5. Klasse, um das Erklären von Begriffen zu üben.

1. Spiel herstellen: Karten (S. 1-10) ausdrucken, ggf. auf Karton kleben und ausschneiden.

2. Regeln: Am besten in kleinen Gruppen (z.B. 2 und 2) gegeneinander spielen. In einer gesetzten Zeit (z.B. 2 Minuten) müssen sich zwei Spieler so viele Begriffe wie möglich gegenseitig erklären. Ein Partner erklärt, der andere versucht das Wort zu erraten. Das Wort selbst und die Begriffe auf den Karten sind „tabu“, dürfen also nicht verwendet werden. Das Team, das in der gesetzten Zeit die meisten Begriffe schafft, gewinnt.

Auf die Tabu-Begriffe kann man natürlich auch verzichten, um das Spiel einfacher zu machen. Dazu findet ihr ab Seite 8 noch einmal dasselbe Kartenset ohne Begriffe.s
